

I oppose further deregulation of Broadcast Ownership rules. The cost to Small Business owners is too great. It will not benefit the American Public. It will only benefit a few large corporations, such as Viacom and Clear Channel, and the politicians that receive money and favors from these corporations.